

Mission: Possible

Learn the power of positive thinking and bully-proof your school with professional tricky-guy Jeff Evans

Mission: Possible builds kids up from the inside out, showing them the power of a positive attitude and self esteem. Jeff Evans shares inspirational stories from legends Abraham Lincoln and Helen Keller to modern day hero Lance Armstrong.

Bully-Proof Your School

As you know, bullying is a hot topic right now. This assembly approaches the subject in a way that makes this potentially intimidating subject fun. Students are chosen to play the role of bullies and attempt to provoke and tease me. Yet, simple responses show kids that they are in charge of their emotions. Your students will return to their classrooms with techniques to avoid and prevent bullying that they can use immediately.

Your teachers all receive free custom-designed Class Activity Sheets with projects and “things to think about” for students. Tips for preventing bullying and dealing with bullies are included.

This assembly teaching the lifetime skills of a positive attitude and how to respect yourself and others may be the most important assembly you'll host all year. And, your students will have a great time in the process, guaranteed, or you don't pay!

“Your additions of 'anti-bully' messages were perfect since we have been discussing those ideas with our students. Numerous students told me it was a fun assembly!!”

-Deniece Hussey, Roosevelt Elementary

“I had fun when you were here. I never saw anything like that in my life. Thank you a lot for teaching me to believe in myself.”

-Janica, Robert Gray Elementary student
